Next Meeting; November 15, at 7:00 PM

The History of Old Bluffton will be the program at our November meeting. Local historians Alfred Hallmark and Karylon "Bitsy" Hallmark Russell will be our guest speakers. They are sixth generation descendants of Bluffton Founder William K. Billy Davis. The presentation will center on the establishment of the Bluffton community, the families, businesses, activities of the day, and finally, the demise of Old Bluffton. Points of interest include the different settlements, the schools, cemetery, roads, the Bluffton Bridge and other history about the Bluffton area. It promises to be an interesting program. Bring your friends!

Christmas Mixer

In place of our regular meeting in December, we are planning a mixer to thank our members and donors for their help and dedication. It will be held at the Hill Country Hall, 7 to 10 PM, December 10. We will serve chopped Bar B Que sandwiches and Potato Salad along with coffee and tea. If you would like, bring a favorite dessert or appetizer to share. Christmas music will be provided by local singers Mercy and Grace. Santa Claus will also be there for the kiddies.
